SUBJECT: Assessments Center

REMARKS:

MAGID understands that the Assessments Center concept is the most controversial and least understood recommendation in our study on Improving First Line Supervision in the DDI. We propose that a working luncheon be scheduled during which a briefing on the concept would be presented by is Chief of the Assessments Branch of the Psychological Services Staff. Those of us who have talked with him find him an interesting and enthusiastic proponent of the Assessments Center approach.

(has heard the briefing and will attest to this.)
